

Scottish Tenpin Bowling Association

Making the Scottish International team is not all about selecting who can knock down the most pins. Therefore the items in the list below will be taken into consideration in the selection process.

- communication skills
- teamwork
- attitude under stress and adversity
- attitude with success
- willingness to change and adapt
- willingness to learn
- coach-ability
- attitude towards teammates and members of Presidium and staff
- how they would represent Scotland as a person of the country
- prior experience
